Bluebonnet Home Scholars Collaborative

Job Description

Instructor

Job Title: Instructor
Work Hours: Part time, salaried, school term
Supervisor: Executive Director/Head of Academics
Desired Start Date: August 2020

Overview:

Bluebonnet Home Scholars Collaborative (BHSC) instructors work with the Executive Director/Head of Academics and the BHSC teaching team to model ongoing learning in a collaborative learning community, to present vital ideas to students in an atmosphere of respect and wonder, to transmit by example disciplined habits of sentiment and volition, and to inspire love and action that embraces the Good, the True, and the Beautiful. BHSC Instructors oversee and implement classroom learning activities and communicate with parents about student progress and development.

Core Characteristics Needed:

The core characteristics needed for successful fulfillment of job responsibilities are listed below:

Tenacity: The successful candidate demonstrates determination and tenacity both in pursuing on-going learning and growth and also in serving and caring for fellow members of the community.

Collaboration: The successful candidate respects the intrinsic dignity and worth of each individual and honors others in all their interactions by listening well and offering honest, direct communication in a spirit of true collaboration.

Freedom: The successful candidate embraces the ecumenical Trinitarian community of BHSC and respects the freedom and potential of students, parents, and fellow staff members.

Wonder: The successful candidate shares the BHSC vision for Christian home education grounded in both classical tradition and contemporary research and aimed toward wonder, knowledge, love, and action.

Professionalism: The successful candidate demonstrates high standards of professional behavior, prioritizes and pursues clarity and organizational health, and continuously seeks to increase competency and understanding.

Areas of Responsibility:

The primary areas of responsibility include, but are not limited to the following:

- Plan and lead 16 class sessions per semester. Prepare lessons and classroom activities that present living ideas in an atmosphere of respect and wonder and that are harmonious with both best practices/contemporary research as well as the classical liberal arts tradition.
- Model disciplined habits of sentiment and volition, love and action that embrace the Good, the True, and the Beautiful.
- Work with the Campus Coordinator to secure, distribute, and organize classroom supplies including texts and other curricular resources.

- Participate in instructor meetings and development activities as requested; be a model for students of ongoing learning in a collaborative learning community. Plan especially to attend important events including Staff Orientation, Campus Orientation & Meet-the-Teacher event, as well as Fall and Spring Instructor Meetings.
- Connect with parents and students and foster positive community relationships.
- Participate in weekly BHSC community assemblies between morning classes and lunch.
- Possibly attend and participate in parent book group meetings and/or additional periodic staff meetings as requested.
- Work with parent volunteers who will assist in class on a rotating basis. Write out directions and expectations for volunteers as needed.
- Collaborate with the Campus Coordinator and parent volunteers to oversee classroom set-up and clean-up; assure furniture is returned to original set-up and classroom is tidy and as clean as, or cleaner than, it was before classes at each class day close. Assist with any wiping down, vacuuming, and/or other cleaning tasks as necessary.
- Complete the required paperwork and give it to the appropriate individuals in a timely fashion when requested: course description & bio, supplies list, letter of introduction to families, course syllabus/overview.
- Arrive at least 10 minutes prior to class meeting to check in with the Campus Coordinator and pick up the class file folder. Before leaving the campus, return class file folder to the Campus Coordinator.
- Be familiar with BHSC policies and procedures in order to facilitate the maintenance of an orderly and respectful learning environment. Take appropriate action when confronted with misconduct. Communicate with both the Campus Coordinator and the parents regarding student behavior, progress, and development.
- Promote and be proactive in furthering the ministry of BHSC.
- Maintain a lifestyle in consonance with sound Christian principles and the values of BHSC.

Qualifications:

- Must have self-initiative and excellent interpersonal and communication skills
- Must be flexible, trust-worthy, and professional
- Must have good organization, computer, and record-keeping skills
- Bachelor's degree or equivalent work experience required (Master's degree preferred)
- Classroom teaching experience preferred
- Personal homeschooling experience preferred
